

Psalm 143 - 8. N.I.V

Let the morning bring me word of your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in you.
Show me the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

This verse brings my thoughts to a poem written by Helen Steiner Rice

“The End of the Road is but a Bend in the Road”

When we feel we have nothing left to give
And we are sure that the “song has ended” —
When our day seems over and the shadows fall
And the darkness of night has descended

So rest and relax and grow stronger,
Let go and let God share your load,
Your work is not finished or ended,
You’ve just come to “a bend in the road”

God brings us to the blessed realisation that not only does He take us to the “bend in the road” but promises to be with us “to the very end of the road”
